THE DOG DAYS OF SUMMER

DAILY DOSE

OF READING

READ:

Read Hot Dog by Doug Salati or listen to the author read it here. What do you do to cool down when it gets too hot outside?

DISCOVER:

Did you know that Slush Puppy Slushies were created in Cincinnati, Ohio? Make your own slush puppies with this recipe from Full-Time Kid. What will you name your new flavor? Why?

EXPLORE:

There's a beach in Cleveland that we can escape to just like the puppy in Hot Dog! Edgewater Beach has a playground, water to splash in, and even a dog beach! Use a stick or your finger to write the alphabet or sight words in the sand.

You can also write letters on a beach ball, toss it back and forth, and say a word that matches with the letter that's on top when you catch the ball.

Visit us at DailyDoseofReading.org for more Summer reading fun!