

DAILY DOSE OF READING

FEBRUARY'S READING ACTIVITIES FOR KIDS

EASY AT-HOME ACTIVITIES TO BUILD LITERACY SKILLS

www.dailydoseofreading.org

FEBRUARY 2024

Discover

JAZZ FOR KIDS!

Jazz is a distinctly American style of music created by Black people in New Orleans. Jazz can be instrumental, or it can have lyrics. Often, the lyrics of early jazz music came from important Black poets.

Explore some kid-friendly modern jazz with this playlist of nursery rhyme jams played by the Lincoln Center Orchestra. Or search "Jazz for Kids" on Youtube or Spotify.

FEBRUARY 2024

Explore

CELEBRATE BLACK ARTS AT TOWER CITY

Immerse yourself in Cleveland's vibrant Black Arts community at this FREE event.

You can watch mural painters work, witness dance battles, make crafts, and learn a little bit about DJ-ing with Scratch Academy.

RecessCleveland will also bring games for all ages!

Tower City Center
Saturday, February 24th
12-4pm

FEBRUARY 2024

Read

Black Is a Rainbow Color

ANGELA JOY

Celebrate Black joy and the color Black with our main character as she takes you on a journey through Black culture.

Talk about Blackness means to you and your family. Who are some Black people who have made our world and our communities a better place to live?

Find more resources at www.dailydoseofreading.org