

WE'RE BETTER TOGETHER

READ:

The Circles Around Us by Brad and Kristi Montague (LISTEN HERE).
Talk about the people in your circles. What makes you feel close to the people you love? Is there anyone else you'd like to bring into make your circle wider?

DISCOVER:

Work with your child to map out your circles. First, draw a small circle and have your child draw their face inside. Draw a larger circle around it labelled Family. Continue making larger circles for Extended Family, Friends, and Community. (Feel free to change the labels to match your family's unique experience.) Have your child draw pictures of the people in each group. Ask them how they can show their love to the people in each group.

EXPLORE:

Celebrate with other Cleveland Readers and the Daily Dose of Reading team at the Cleveland Reads Victory Bash on December 2. Come for FREE parades, prizes, food trucks, bumper cars, roller skating, and BOOKS!
